

Eduardo Dudu Penz

Born 1964 in Pôrto Alegre (Brazil). Autodidact, began playing guitar at the recent age of 9 years. At age 14 started to play the bass guitar and made himself a name recording and performing with most diverse formations in southern Brazil.

Dudu Penz moved to Europe in 1985 continuing his career performing with most diverse groups and artists in countless festivals, jazz clubs and theatres throughout the world such as: Montreux Jazz Festival, North Sea jazz, jazz festival Bern, Ronnie Scott London, Queen Elisabeth Hall London, Umbria Jazz, Istanbul jazz festival, San Javier jazz, Couleur café, Philips Dubai jazz festival, Roskilde Music Festival, Paris Jazz Festival etc...

As recording musician and performer Dudu Penz has played with include: Rodrigo Botter Maio & jazz via Brasil, Julio Baretto Latino World Quartet, Leny Andrade and Bossa Legends, Chico Freeman, Queen of Salsa Celia Cruz, Cheo Feliciano, Tony Martinez & Cuban Power featuring Gonzalo Rubalcaba, Mercadonegro, Alfredo de la Fé, Brazilian trombone legend Raul de Sousa, Jimmy Bosch, David Valentin, Giovanni Hidalgo and many others.